

Sustainable Start to Finish

We are committed to developing long-lasting, environmentally sound roofing products that save you money and protect your investment. Like every DaVinci product, Bellaforté tiles are accompanied by a 50-year limited warranty, and that means you won't be adding to landfills by replacing your roof after a few years. Even when DaVinci tiles are replaced, they can be recycled at our factory. And because Bellaforté tiles use 25% less material than comparable synthetic tiles, they are lighter thus lowering the carbon emissions associated with production and transportation.

You can also reduce your annual heating and cooling usage when you use DaVinci EcoBlend® cool roof colors. Selecting Bellaforté for your home is a smart, sustainable choice.
